CHICAGO.

THE STRIKE AND LOCKOUT.

CHICAGO, May 10.—The excitement over the labor troubles this morning is principally confined to the lumber district. In that section great crowds assembled early to see if any old hands would return to work. At P. Woehler & Co's. eighty men went to work at 8 hours with nine hours pay. All sash, door and blind factories in the district started up.

About 1,500 men went to work. They get nine hours pay for eight hours work.

A committee of striking freight handlers of the Chicago and Northwestern asked to be permitted to return to work on the old basis. The company replied the men had been given full notice to return to work, but had failed to do so. Other men had been hired and no places are vacant.

Nearly all the striking employees of the Rothschild's Sons furniture factory returned to work Saturday, but yesterday notified the firm that they would not again return to work until the socialist agitator of their union, Stahlke, was released from arrest. David Rothschild gives notice that all his men are discharged and he will not hear any more proposals for compromise.

THE FREIGHT HANDLERS.

All the railways in the city resumed operations this morning and are accepting and caring for all freight offered without limit. The situation, however, affecting the freight handlers is still unsettled, and has developed an unexpected phase. The Baltimore and Ohio has conceded the eight hour working day with nine hours pay.

At the Chicago and Eastern Illinois freight house five men only of the strikers were taken back. Twelve were paid off and discharged. The latter were told they would not be taken back under any circumstances.

FOUR MORE DEATHS.

Yesterday it was quiet throughout the entire city. No processions occurred, and the police were not even called upon to disperse any large assemblages. Officer Timothy Flavin died at the city hospital last night, and Officer Michael Sheahan died at his home yesterday afternoon. This makes five police officers dead as a result of Tuesday evening's outrage, and others liable to die at any moment. Kruger, the socialist who was shot by Officer Madden, Wednesday night, died yesterday morning, and the death of Frank Lannis occurred at 2307 Wentworth avenue during the afternoon. He was a recognized member of the communists, and was wounded in Tuesday night's riot.

A STRIKER HELD.

C. C. Anderson, a discharged employe of the Western Indiana railroad, was held to the criminal court in $500 bail for pulling coupling pins from freight cars.

CINCINNATI.

A BETTER FEELING THERE.

CINCINNATI, May 10.—The situation is decidedly more hopeful to-day. Under the shadow of a strong military force and assured by the mayor's proclamation, that all who desired to go to work should have ample protection, much of the wild fear that has hitherto led many doubtful workmen to go with their fellowmen is gone. Street repairing has been resumed. A large number of workers in the furniture factories are again at work.

Where new men have been hired they are not molested and on every hand the indications are that the strike is growing less and less formidable. The furniture manufacturers have settled the question of an advance in wages. They will not advance. The carriage manufacturers have made more or less concessions to their men and work is being resumed to-day. Under the new arrangements nobody anticipates any collision or violence and the hope is that within a few days all the trouble will be amicably settled.

DETROIT.

DETROIT, Mich., May 10.—This morning crowds of strikers gathered about the Michigan car shops when some workmen attempted to go to work. The crowd drove them away with bricks. Under protection of the police twenty-five men resumed work. The entire force at Murphy's chair factory resumed this morning. A score of extra police have been sworn in.

PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 10.—About six hundred garment cutters and trim-

mers at wholesale establishments struck for eight hours with ten hours pay. It will throw out of work several thousand men, women and girls. The firms in the clothing exchange, thirty-four in number, will resist the demands.

PITTSBURG.

PITTSBURG, May 10.—One thousand colliers employed in the pits along the Youghaheny river and also at the mines at Scott Haven, resumed work this morning at the advance in wages demanded.

WASHINGTON.

Gossip From the Nation's Capital.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Save the introduction of unimportant memorials and bills nothing was done in congress to-day.

William H. Scudder, private secretary to General Black, commissioner of pensions, has been kept at home during the past two weeks in order to attend upon a child which has been seriously ill with diphtheria. Mr. Scudder was reared near Muncie, and was at one time editor of the Fort Wayne Sentinel.

The Washington Herald, says: "Ex-Senator McDonald went to New York on Friday, to attend a dinner party, but his wife remained here to await his return. They will not leave the city, probably, before the close of the week." The Capital says: Ex-Senator and Mrs. McDonald, who have been spending some weeks at the Riggs House, will leave to-morrow, for their home in Indianapolis. Senator and Mrs. McDonald will be at home by the middle of the week.

Frank Beane, son of a democratic editor at Elkhart, nominated to be register of a land office in Idaho, has been rejected, because the man removed was a wounded union soldier. Beane will get another place.

Third Auditor Williams claims, in his report, that in the year ending April 30, 1886, there was a saving of clerk hire in his bureau of $14,446, and he estimates the reduction this year at $28,000.

Delegate Voorhees, of Washington territory, was asked this morning about the report that his sister, Miss Rose, was being pursued from place to place and annoyed with unwelcome attentions by a New York gentleman named Dodge. "It is all newspaper gossip, I think," he said; "I know Mr. Dodge well, and he is not the man to make a fool of himself and bring a young girl into the public prints. Possibly he and my sister may have accidentally met in Chattanooga after both had left Florida, but I am sure there was no following or annoyance of any kind. I hope that talk about this matter will stop right here. If it should ever go so far as the publication in newspapers of pictures of the parties, there may be a curious test case in the courts soon."

The Greek Ministers Resign.

ATHENS, May 10.—The Greek ministers persisted in resigning despite King George's refusal on Sunday to accept their resignation. The official journal approves the ministerial action and says it believes it is for the best interests of Greece. The king met the cabinet at noon to-day and accepted their resignations. The king immediately sent for M. Rikettes and commissioned him to form a new ministry.

The Ohio Senate.

COLUMBUS, O., May 10.—In the Ohio senate this morning Van Cleef, a democrat, offered a motion for the correction of the journal referring to the proceedings of Saturday, seating four republican members. The motion was ruled out of order, and the protest offered by Van Cleef against the proceeding on Saturday were taken under advisement by the president.

Fire Record.

CINCINNATI, May 10.—The town of Laurel, Ind., was again visited by a fire yesterday, having been nearly destroyed a short time ago. This time the loss is about $13,000. Insurance, $7,000. J. Geyer, dry goods, is the principal loser. The fire started from dynamite exploded in Geyer's building by unknown parties.

Mr. Moody Responsible.

CHICAGO, May 10.—The impression that the Moody revival meetings were closed by order of the mayor is wrong. The meetings were suspended by Mr. Moody himself, and the mayor or police had no agency in the matter whatever.

A Tornado.

CONNEERSVILLE, Ind., May 10.—A tornado passed through Wayne county, thirteen miles north of this place, last night, destroying everything in its track. One woman and two men, names unknown, are reported killed.

Home Rule.

LONDON, May 10.—Gladstone was received with cheers and moved a second reading of his home rule bill.

THE MARKETS.

New York, May 10.—Wheat, opened 40 stronger and later weakened. No. 2 red, May, 89 1/2 @ 90. Corn, shade higher, less active, 35 @ 48. Oats, quiet steady at 40 @ 44.

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Wheat, weak, lower, 75 1/2. Corn, easy, 34 1/2. Oats, weak, 29.

Rev. I. N. Porch, of Bloomington, a minister of the Christian church, died Saturday.

Circular to the Knights of Labor.

TO KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Mr. Powderly's Secret Circular Finds its Way to the Public.

CHICAGO, May 10.—The following secret letter has been received by the Knights of Labor, of this city, and will be read in the assemblies during the week. It is very important to Knights of Labor:

"The response to the secret circular issued on March 13 has been so generous and the endorsement of the sentiment contained therein has been so unanimous that I feel encouraged and strengthened in the work. Nearly four thousand assemblies have pledged themselves to act on the advice contained in the circular of the 13th ult. I feel that it only requires the coming to the front of the real men of our order to set us right before the world. We have been losing ground, so far as public opinion is concerned, for some time. One of the causes is that we have allowed things to be done under the name of the Knights of Labor for which the organization was in no wise responsible. I ask of our members to keep a jealous eye upon the using of the labor men who never labor, and, when they charge anything to your order in your locality, set the seal of your condemnation upon them at once by denying it. If a paper criticizes the Knights of Labor or its officers, do not boycott it, and if you have entered on such boycotts stop them. We must bear in mind that our general master workman is only a man, and is not above criticism. We demand for ourselves the right of free speech. We cannot consistently deny it to others. We must tolerate fair, open criticism, and if a reply is necessary, make it in a gentlemanly, dignified manner. If we are criticized or abused by a blackguard sheet, treat it as you would the blackguard himself—in silence. That our aims and objects are good is no reason why our members should be regarded as beings of superior build or material. We are no more the salt of the earth than the millions of unknown toilers who do the work of the world. In our dealings with laborers and capitalists we must deal justly and fairly by them. If we would have equity done to us, we must, in turn do equity to others. That is the aim of the Knights of Labor, and must not be lost sight of in the future."

"Let me direct your attention to a few little abuses; I find that wherever a strike occurs appeals for aid are scattered broadcast among the assemblies. Do not pay one cent for such purposes in future, unless the appeal comes from your own district assembly or the general assembly. If boycott notices are sent you, burn them. I have in my possession over 400 boycott notices which were sent to assemblies with a request that they be acted on. Let me mention some of them. A certain paper is influential in one or the other political parties. Members of the opposing party conceive the idea of getting rid of the paper, and they invoke the aid of the Knight of Labor, first taking the precaution to have the paper in question say something complimentary of the Knights of Labor. In fact, our order has been used as a tail for a hundred different kites, and in the future it must soar aloft from all of them. I ask of the secretary of each assembly to either burn or table all appeals for help, or boycott notices, and waste no more time in reading or considering them. Some assemblies sent out documents in envelopes addressed to 'Secretary of Assembly No. —.' In many places the secretaries have been discharged because of this practice. No member has the right to address another in that way, and if it is ever practiced again the offenders will be punished. "In future the general executive board must not be interfered with in the performance of its duty. If you have confidence in them, show it and obey them; if not, ask for their resignations. While the board was endeavoring to settle the southwest trouble, assemblies in some places, with the best of intentions, no doubt, were passing and publishing resolutions condemning Jay Gould. These things did no good; on the contrary, they were injurious. In the settlement of troubles it becomes the duty of the executive board to meet everybody and go everywhere. While they are doing this they must not be hampered by the action of those who do not know what their task is. Keep quiet; let your officers do their best, and if you cannot find a way to aid them, do not retard their progress. Resolutions do not prevent land stealing, stock-watering, or gambling in the necessities of life. If I had my mind made up to rob a bank at midnight, a string of resolutions as long as the moral law would not influence me a particle; but if some interested party would take the trouble to study up the question, and would inform himself as to my right to rob the bank, and would stand guard at the door of the vault, I would not rob it at midnight if he did his duty. What we want from every member is not gush or windy resolutions about our rights. We know we have rights without passing resolutions. Men who think, study and act are required. "The general assembly will meet in special session on the 25th of May in the city of Cleveland. From the receipt of this letter you must not address any communications to me, nor need you expect an answer if you do. I have thousands of letters piled up around me now, and they never can be read, much less answered by one man. During and since my illness the mail delivered at my house has exceeded 400 letters a day. They come from everybody and everywhere. I asked through the journals that no one send letters to me. I am told by some to get help. If I had fifty assistants it would do no good, for it takes my whole time to read half of the letters, and in the middle of my work I am waited on by some committee, who generally misrepresent me after they leave— for every member of the committee will tell a different story. From now until the general assembly meets I will receive no communications, answer no letters, I must formulate a plan for the future and will not be interfered with. Let me repeat, I will receive no committee, answer no letters, nor will I go anywhere at the request of members of assemblies. This is imperative. I must have a chance to do something of benefit for the order, and I can not do it if I am to sit for eighteen hours a day reading letters which have been answered and re-answered in the journal and constitution. What I will say in the general assembly will be said to the entire order, and you must give me time to prepare it. "We have had some trouble from drinking members and from men who talk about buying guns and dynamite. If the men who possess money enough to buy guns and dynamite would invest it in the purchase of some well selected works on labor, they would put the money to good use. They will never need the gun or dynamite in this country. It is my opinion that the man who does not study the politics of the nation and wants of our people would make but little use of a rifle. The man who cannot vote intelligently, and who will not watch the man he votes for after he is elected, cannot be depended upon to use either gun or dynamite. If the head, the brain, of man cannot work out the problem now confronting us, his hand alone will never solve it. If I kill my enemy I silence him, it is true, but I do not convince him. I would make a convert rather than a corpse of my enemy. Men who own capital are not our enemies. If that theory held good the workman of to-day would be the enemy of his fellow toiler to-morrow; for, after all, it is how to acquire capital and how to use it properly that we are endeavoring to learn. No. The man of capital is not necessarily the enemy of the laboring man; on the contrary, they must be brought closer together. I am well aware that some extremists will say that I am advocating a weak plan, and will say that bloodshed and the destruction of property alone will solve the problem. "To our drinking member I extend the hand of kindness. I hate the uses to which rum has been put, but it is my duty to reach down and lift up the man who has fallen a victim to the use of liquor. If there is such a man within the sound of the secretary's voice when this is read, I ask him to stand erect on the floor of his assembly, raise his hand to heaven and repeat with me these words: 'I am a Knight of Labor. I believe every man should be free from the curse of slavery, whether the slavery appears in the shape of monopoly, usury, or intemperance. The firmest link in the chain of oppression is the one I forge when I drown manhood and reason in drink. No man can rob me of the brain God gave unless I am a party to the theft. If one moment's forgetfulness while drunk brings defeat to the least of labor's plans, a life time attention to duty alone can repair the loss. I promise never again to put myself in such a position. "We have, through some unfortunate misunderstanding, incurred the enmity of several trades unions. While I can find no excuse for the unmanly attack made upon us by some of these people, at a time when we stood face to face with a most perplexing question, neither can I see any good reason for any cause for a quarrel. We must have no clashing between the men of labor's army. If I am the cause of the trouble, I stand ready at a moment's notice to make way for one of my rivals whom the general assembly may select. Break the power of the Knights of Labor and you hand labor bound hand and foot over to its enemies. Years ago I extended an invitation to men of all trades to become a part and parcel to the Knights of Labor. To-day I stand ready to make every honorable concession, to do everything in honor to bring about a better feeling between trades unions and the Knights of Labor. At a special session of the general assembly the entire trouble can and must be settled. If mistakes have been made, they must be rectified; if wrongs have been inflicted, they must be righted, but there is one thing that will not be done while I stand at the head of this organization—it will not be used to further the

Wonders of the Sea.

WRITTEN FOR THE SENTINEL.

The sea occupies three-fifths of the surface of the earth. At the depth of about 3,500 feet, waves are not felt. The temperature is the same, varying only a trifle from the ice of the pole to the burning sun of the equator. A mile down, the water has a pressure of over a ton to the square inch. If a box six feet deep were filled with sea water and allowed to co-operate under the sun, there would be two inches of salt left on the bottom. Taking the average depth of the ocean to be three miles, there would be a layer of pure salt 230 feet thick on the bed of the Atlantic. The water is colder at the bottom than at the surface. In the many bays on the coasts of Norway, the water often freezes on the bottom before it does above. Waves are deceptive. To look at them in a storm, one would think the water traveled. The water stays in the same place, but the motion goes on. Sometimes in storms these waves are forty feet high, and travel fifty miles an hour—more than twice as fast as the swiftest steamer. The distance from valley to valley is generally fifteen times the height, hence a wave five feet high will extend over seventy-five feet of water. The force of the sea dashing on Bell Rock is said to be seventeen tons for each square yard. Evaporation is a wonderful power in drawing the water from the sea. Every year a layer of the sea fourteen feet thick is taken up into the clouds. The winds bear them into land, and the water comes down in rain upon the fields to flow back at last through rivers. The depth of the sea presents an interesting problem. If the Atlantic ocean were lowered 6,564 feet, the distance from shore to shore would be half as great, or 1,500 miles. If lowered a little more than three miles, say 19,650 feet, there would be a road of dry land from New Foundland to Ireland. This is the plan on which the great Atlantic cables were laid. The Mediterranean sea is comparatively shallow. A drying up of 660 feet would leave three different seas and the continent of Africa would be joined to that of Europe at Italy. The British channel is more like a pond, which accounts for its choppy waves. It has been found difficult to get correct soundings of the Atlantic ocean. A midshipman of the navy overcame the difficulty, and shot weighing thirty pounds carries down the line. A hole is bored through the sinker, through which a rod of iron is passed, moving easily back and forth. In the end of the bar a cup is dug out and the inside coated with lard. The bar is made fast to the line and a sling holds the shot on. When the bar, which extends below the ball, touches the earth, the sling unhooks and the shot slides off. The lard in the end of the bar holds some of the sand, or whatever may be on the bottom, and a drop shuts over the cup to keep the water from washing the sand out. When the ground is reached a shock is felt as if an electric current had passed through the line.

CRUSHED BY A TRAIN.

A Family of Four Persons Killed at Inwood.

PLYMOUTH, Ind., May 10.—As the fast express which left Chicago at 3:15 p. m. via the Fort Wayne road, yesterday afternoon, was passing the little station of Inwood, six miles east of Plymouth, at 6 o'clock last evening, a horrible accident occurred and four lives were lost thereby.

John Wymer, a young farmer, living a mile and a half east of Inwood, started from his home in the morning, accompanied by his wife and two pretty little daughters, one aged five years and the other a babe, and drove out to visit his father-in-law. After spending the day they started back and reached Inwood station just as the express was due. As his wagon was passing over the track it was struck by the engine and both horses were killed instantly, as was also Wymer and the eldest child. His wife and the other child escaped instant death but died thirty minutes later. The bodies of Wymer and the eldest child are mangled so as to make them almost unrecognizable, and they present a sickening appearance. The girl's head was completely severed from the body and lay ten or fifteen feet away, while Wymer was simply a shapeless mass of flesh.

An eye-witness said to an Associated Press reporter: "It was an awful accident, but no one is to blame except Wymer himself. Just before they came down this far Wymer had a friend in the wagon with him. The man strongly urged him not to attempt to cross the track; but Wymer paid no heed to him. Then the friend got out of the wagon and left Wymer to take the chance if he wanted. Wymer was foolish, but it is too late now to talk about that."

After the train had moved out the dead and dying were left on the floor of the station there, to await the arrival of medical aid, although there was no hope that either mother or child would live until it could reach them. The coroner at Plymouth was also notified and is holding an inquest. Much sorrow was expressed among the residents at Inwood and the passengers, at the unfortunate event by which an entire family was wiped out of existence through the recklessness of its head member.

While the same fast express No. 8 east on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad was approaching Warsaw last Friday evening, a boy named James Brown, aged eleven years, attempted to run across the track ahead of the engine, but was run over and instantly killed. The train stopped and took the remains to the station, where they were turned over to the coroner.

COMMON SENSE IN LAFAYETTE.

Lafayette, Ind., shares with twenty-three other cities and towns in the United States, the distinction of being named after the great French patriot who did so much for this country and his own, but it is alone in the honor of being mentioned in the Encyclopedia Britannica. Life in the lively pushing city on the Wabash, with its many cosy homes, fine public buildings and general air of prosperity and enterprise, is very pleasant, and recently many of its citizens felt that it has assumed new charms since rheumatism has been robbed of its terrors.

This great benefaction, however, is not one which rejoices this particular Lafayette alone, but it has been given to other Lafayettes as well, and to the world. Athlophoros is the magic remedy which drives away rheumatism and neuralgia, and Lafayette has only shown its characteristic enterprise in recognizing the new cure's many virtues. Among the whom it has benefited is Mrs. Francis Heath, of No. 79 Ferry street, and old resident and the mother of banker Heath. In answer to one who recently called on her to learn the facts in the case she gave this account:

"I have had rheumatic pains in my feet for a number of years. They affected me at times so that it was with much difficulty that I could walk, especially in going down stairs. Athlophoros was first recommended to me by Bishop Bowman. I did not get it at that time, but kept trying other medicines. It was again recommended to me by a lady. I then sent for and bought a bottle. I took a dose and it seemed to me as if I could feel it go through my system until it came directly to the sore spot. It felt just as a little stream of water looks when during its course it comes in contact with a pebble. One or the other must give way. The water may run around the stone, but that was not the way Athlophoros did. It did not go around the pain, but drove it away. The relief was almost instantaneous. While I am getting along in years and cannot expect to get rid entirely of these pains at once, yet a small dose of Athlophoros in a little cream—the way in which I find most pleasant to take it—relieves the pain immediately."

Mr. Baldrige, who is in the real estate and insurance business at No. 94 South Third street, and who lives at No. 17 North Sixth street, happening to be passing while Mrs. Heath was speaking, she called him in and he gladly told how he had been cured of rheumatism by Athlophoros.

"I was just about to start down to my office one morning last winter," he said, "when a terrible pain took me right in the hip and then ran down the sciatic nerve as quick as lightning. It was with much pain and distress that I managed to get down to my office at all. My business being such that it was necessary for me to be at the office every day, I was obliged to hobble along and keep the best I could. I suffered for some time in this way, trying all kinds of remedies, but nothing seemed to check the disease until I commenced using Athlophoros. The first four doses gave me relief. I only used one bottle, and am perfectly well, as you see me now. I have never had any return of the pain since I took the Athlophoros."

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be tempted to try something else, but order at once from us, as directed. ATHLOPHOROS CO., 112 Wall Street, New York

OFFICIAL PAPER COUNTY AND CITY.

MONDAY, MAY 10, 1886.

THE Emperor William paid 20,000 marks for the original manuscript of "The Watch on the Rhine."

THE prohibitionists of this state will meet at Indianapolis on the 26th inst., for the purpose of nominating a state ticket.

JOHN DUBOIS, the Pennsylvania lumber king, who left $5,000,000 to his nephew, was yesterday laid to rest in the town bearing his name. The funeral was attended by over four thousand persons.

MEMBERS of the house of representatives were taken by surprise Saturday on receiving vetoes of two private pension bills, in which President Cleveland had taken time to discover grave faults. The republican senate recently put through four hundred measures of this sort in one evening without having them read. Mr. Cleveland went down the Chesapeake bay on a steam yacht Saturday evening.

A PHOTOGRAPH has just been taken in Hartford of five persons who represent five generations. On the right sits the great-great-grandfather, Benoni Austin, of North Woodstock, aged 95 years. On the left is the great-grandfather, John Austin, aged 75; back of him is the grandfather, N. V. Austin, aged 52; in the center stands the father, Arthur P. Austin, aged 29; and in front of him stands his little son, Forrest, just 5 years old. They are all in good health.

HON. W. H. ENGLISH has resigned the presidency of the First National bank of Indianapolis. E. F. Claypool succeeds him. English retains the ownership of the stock. He has also leased his hotel to G. E. Rossner, of Cincinnati, and Jesse Morgan, of Washington, and his opera house to H. M. Talbot. Mr. English will devote himself for some time to his historical work on the law makers of Indiana, and after its publication contemplates a little recreation in travel with his family.

STATE SENATOR JOHN ECKINS, of Colorado, was in Denver when the news was flashed over the wires that New York was so close that it was thought Cleveland had it. He took the train that night to come East. He was in the sleeper, and at a station some distance east of Denver a man got on the train, who, after inquiries of the porter, came back where the Senator was sitting, and asked: "Are you not Mr. Elkins? Are you not a relative of Stephen B. Elkins? I want to find out about the election." The Senator's response was: "I'm not related to 'Steve' Elkins in the slightest degree. Before election I was his brother."

SIR JAMES CAIRD, whose recent statement that there are 538,000 small tenants in Ireland who will be unable to pay any rent if the present low prices of produce continue has attracted so much attention, writes to the London Times again on the same subject. He classifies Irish holdings under nine heads, as follows:

1. 218,000 holdings averaging $2 rental.
2. 136,000 holdings averaging $7 rental.
3. 78,000 holdings averaging $13 rental.
4. 46,000 holdings averaging $18 rental.
5. 47,000 holdings averaging $25 rental.
6. 24,000 holdings averaging $35 rental.
7. 14,000 holdings averaging $45 rental.
8. 24,000 holdings averaging $75 rental.
9. 12,000 holdings averaging $200 rental.

This makes a total of 659,000 holdings on which the annual rent is $52,085,000. He says further that many tenants farm two or more holdings, and estimates the number of Irish bona fide agriculturists at 400,000. He states that he has learned that a majority of Irish landlords do not want to sell out, but the statement has been received with incredulity.

They're Not Sorry.

There is one thing nobody ever regrets—that is, the day they first adopted Parker's Tonic as their regular family medicine. Its range is so wide, and its good effects so sure, that nothing else, except good nursing, are needed in great majority of cases. Buy it, try it, and afterwards it will not require any praise from us.

THE people of Christian County, Kentucky, have just discovered that in their midst is the grave of Jefferson Davis' brother. The grave is unmarked by a tombstone, and has been plowed over. This year a crop has been planted on it.

SOME six or seven years since there came to Washington from California Mr. and Mrs. Boyer. She was a rather small, bright, ambitious woman, with literary ability, whose nom de plume was "Dora Marmore." It was his desire to obtain a position in the Government Printing Office, and she did all in her power to aid him. When he succeeded, however, she went to New York, secured a legal separation and resumed her maiden name of Dora Tichenor. Not long ago she captured Mr. Voorhies, of the New York yacht fleet, and he has now been sued by Mrs. Gurnee, a dashing widow, for $100,000 for breach of promise.

MR. ROSS R. WINANS, who is being dragged before the public by one Mrs. O'Keefe, appears to be a very much married man. His first wife was Miss Ludlum, of Baltimore, a very handsome and conspicuous looking woman. She had very blonde hair, and some said, her death was caused by the ill effects of the coloring she used to give the beautiful golden tint to her hair. His present wife was Miss Whistler, a niece of the eccentric artist, who has such a fondness for "symphonies" and "harmonies." The father of Mr. Winans made his immense fortune as a contractor for building railroads in Russia.

THE romantic attachment of a son of Secretary Bayard for Miss Deacon, the daughter of the proprietor of a mountain hotel in West Virginia, was published last fall. Some friends of his father's, failing to effect a reconciliation, procured for the young man the appointment of Chief Clerk to the Surveyor General of Arizona. With the death of his wife and daughter, his estrangement from his son passed away, and the young couple are to be married in June. A story that she was a waitress, circulated by some jealous society girls, was based on her having acted in that capacity once or twice when the house was crowded. She is represented as good-looking, well educated, and lady-like in deportment.

THE last lecture of Father Hyacinth at his Gallican Church in Paris was disturbed by four enemies of his doctrine, who assailed him with foul abuse. As the church was full, and as most of the hearers were in sympathy with the lecturer, the disturbers were set upon by the masculine part of the congregation. The place of worship was almost turned into a field of battle. When the disturbers were ejected, the people outside, who were unable to get in, would have handled them roughly had not the police interfered. The success the Father has had this Lent is so cheering that he has abandoned the idea of giving up his church in the Rue d'Arras. He will, however, lecture in the provinces more than hitherto.

We have handled Athlophoros for some time and have sold between eight and ten gross of it. It gives the best satisfaction of any medicine for the diseases for which it is designed. Lutyen & Co., druggists, Newark, Illinois.

ANTI-KALSOMIN.

We are now the agents for the only permanent wall finish Anti-Kalsomine. It covers as well as kalsomine, need never be washed to be renewed; will take a hundred coats if necessary, without cracking, chalking or peeling off. It is sanitary in its composition, kalsomine is not. It is also an excellent primer for outside as well as inside work; it fills the pores of the wood better than white lead, ochre or any known pigment; makes a more solid surface, is much cheaper than ochre or lead, and is the best covering for walls known. Try it and be convinced.

We have also a large stock of wall paper patterns, ceiling decorations and borders, mixed paints, brushes, artists materials, etc. Give us a call at the paint and paper store of Wilding & Son, 191 Calhoun street. 13-1m

THE CITY.

Mr. Bob DeWald was at Chicago yesterday.

The word measles originally meant terrocy.

Mr. Jeff Scott, the politician, is at Chicago.

Mrs. Bessie Wolf is at her home at Lansing, Mich.

Mrs. Dr. J. M. Dinnen is the guest of relatives at Chicago.

The county commissioners will meet
as a board of equalization on Monday, June 7.

Mr. James O'Neill will probably close the legitimate amusement season at the Temple.

Mr. Will Wilkison, the clever manager of the Academy, was at Toledo over Sunday.

Miss Jennie Suffren has returned to this city from a visit to her home at Indianapolis.

Hon. James H. Rice was in the city yesterday. "Our Jim" is always welcome here.

The Central grammar school commencement will be held June 11 at High school hall.

Miss Alice Orler is lying very low with lung fever at the residence of her mother
on Hamilton street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cromwell are at home from Kansas, where Mr. Cromwell has timber interests.

Messrs. Ed and Will C'Bieme, the Star electric tower men, have returned from New Orleans.

is the guest of his brothers, M. V. B.
Spencer and J. D. Spencer.

Clarence Cook has returned from a visit to Washington, D. C., and is at work at the Newspaper Union.

Mr. Sam Chaska has again leased his present store building and will not remove. Mr. Chaska is a live merchant.

Four marriage announcements were read at the Cathedral yesterday, including the bans of the gallant Officer Sheridan.

Mr. Ed Little, of Black Hills, Dakota, was the guest of his brother, Al Little,
of the Pittsburg paint shop, over Sunday.

Mr. Harry Kepplinger, book-keeper
for Keil Bros., and Miss Ada Gumpfer, a very pretty lady, are to be married the 9th of June.

Mrs. Lavina Cron, nee Stapleford, of Piqua, Ohio, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. S. C. Henderson, of 169 E. Washington street.

There will be a big shooting tournament at White's range to-morrow for the local championship medal, now held by George Durfee.

Mr. W. P. Chapman, the express manager, has returned from Cincinnati, where he has been to attend the funeral of his father.

The date for laying the corner stone of St. Mary's Catholic church may have to be postponed as the foundation cannot be completed in two weeks.

"Harry Medsker, F. W. Rawles and Charles Nathan were among the Fort Wayne people who were in the city Saturday," says the Huntington Democrat.

THE SENTINEL has received a copy of the New Kiowa (Kas.) Journal, edited by Mr. D. A. Woodworth, formerly of this city. It is a prosperous looking paper.

The Markey brothers sent flowers to twenty-five wedding parties in suburban towns last week, and sold $200 dollars worth of posies here. This is an age of flowers.

Mrs. Charles Parr, Mrs. T. Kroop and the Misses Clara Brossard and Celia Parr are at home from Cincinnati, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J.
Brossard.

Mr. George F. Felts has been notified that the county superintendent's convention will meet at Indianapolis June 2,
and during the week there will be an excursion to Lafayette.

The organ factory will be closed this week for lack of work.

Professor J. H. Smart, wife and children, were in the city last week.

Joe Gorrell, of the Winchester Democrat, was in the city Saturday evening.

The advance sale of seats for "Monte Cristo" began this morning at the Temple.

Very Rev. Father Brammer is much better and his host of friends will rejoice.

Mr. Shaw Stevens, chief train dispatcher of the Wabash, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Tony Trentman, the successful paper mill man, was at Cincinnati Saturday on business.

Supt. C. D. Law, of the Pittsburg road, was in the city yesterday but returned to Chicago this morning.

Charles Nathan has disposed of his liquor business to his brother Julius,
and will remove with his family to Cleveland, Ohio.

The committees of the G. A. R. to arrange for Memorial day, will meet at the office of James E. Graham this evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. O'Neill's characterization of Monte Cristo is superb. At periods he reminds one of the late Chas. Fechter, the ideal Count.

Jim Callahan, a telegraph operator for the Pittsburg and Fort Wayne road, is in jail at Wooster, Ohio, for attempting to kill the sheriff.

The city council convenes to-morrow night. It is improbable that any changes will be made in the present officers, who are acceptable, capable and honest.

The men at the Bass and Murray foundries, the Fort Wayne Iron works and the Horton Manufacturing company were paid to-day for the month of April.

Mr. Jack Remsen, who is remembered by Fort Wayne people, is now captain of the Hartford base ball club, and the Providence (R. I.) Indicator gives Jack quite a send off.

Conductors of passenger trains are obliged now to turn their own switches going into Chicago, the striking switch tenders refusing to allow the brakemen to touch a switch.

Mr. John J. Munger, last week, sold a Fleming road scraper to the town of New Haven and another scraper to Trus-ter Habacker, of Adams township. The Fleming road scraper is appreciated
where it is best known.

The Edith Sinclair comedy company went from here to Evansville, where they open to-night. Miss Sinclair wanted to establish a relationship with Judge Sam Sinclair, but the bashful bachelor jurist would not listen to the actress.

The La Cronica, published at Los Angeles, Cal., has this item about a prominent citizen of Fort Wayne: "El Sr. H. G. Wagner, experimentado boticario de Fort Wayne, Indiana, nos hizo el honor de visitarnos la semana pasada.
Esta entusiasmo con nosotros clima."

Mr. John Renss will certainly be named as a member of the executive committee of the state liquor league to represent the Twelfth district. Mr. Renss was secretary pro tem of the meeting and could have been permanent secretary.

While the decrease in east bound freight from Chicago last week was only two thousand tons, a comparison with the same week of 1885 shows a falling off of 62,854 tons. This, of course, reduces the business of the Fort Wayne roads.

Capt. Hugh M. Diehl will go to Van Wert Wednesday to testify in the Delphos body snatching case. The remains of a miser were sent here some months ago for dissection, but the medical college folks returned the body untouched.

"Dr. Pitzer, of Tipton, is a candidate for auditor of state, and the Times of that place speaks of him in the highest terms. We have no doubt but that the gentleman is, all the Times claims for him, and should he be nominated we would give him hearty support. But we are for Charley Munson first, last and as long as there is a chance for his nomination," says the Huntington Democrat.

"Congressman Ford has written a letter to the editor of the Elkhart Sentinel declining to run for congress. It shows conclusively that the newspapers have some influence. Mr. Zimmerman, of the Warsaw Union, has kept up a continual fight on Congressman Ford for the past three months, and justly, too. Public officials should learn to respect the men who help put them in their places," says the Warsaw Times.

"Adolf Keifer, of Fort Wayne, Ind., arrived in the city Wednesday. Mr.
Keifer will investigate Kiowa and adjoining country with a view to making his home among us.—Reinhard Brown, of Medicine Lodge, is in town on his way to Fort Wayne, Ind., on a visit. Mr.
Brown made many friends in Kiowa during his stay last winter, and it is safe to predict his early return," says the New Kiowa (Kas.) Journal.

The local passenger agents met at Indianapolis Saturday to agree upon rates of fare to the music festival at the time of the dedication of the city hall there.
One fare for the round trip with price of admission ticket to be added was agreed upon from all points within the following territory: Bounded on the east by the Grand Rapids and Indiana road and a line drawn from Richmond through Connersville to Greensburg, south by the Ohio and Mississippi railroad, west by the Evansville and Terre Haute and the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, north by the Wabash.

Next Sunday afternoon the corner stone of St. Paul's new Catholic church will be laid. Mr. A. C. Trentman is named as chief marshal, with Messrs. M.
Baltes and T. B. Hedekin as assistants.
At 2:30 the ceremonies of laying the corner stone will begin, conducted by Rt.
Rev. Joseph Rademacher, bishop of Nashville, Tenn., and assisted by the Catholic clergy of this city. At 2:45 a sermon in English will be preached by the Rt. Rev. Joseph Rademacher, to be followed by a sermon in German by Dr.
Otto Zardetti, professor of theology at St. Francis seminary, Milwaukee.

discussed.

Henry Muench and Mary Steir, Wm.
Waterson and Annie Archer, Joshua Wagner and Elmina Martin have been licensed to wed. The county clerk has been notified to refuse a license to the daughter of Wm. Krohnmaker.

The police court program this morning was, Lawrence Fife, drunk, $11;
Charles Hartner, drunk, $11; Henry Lauer, drunk, $11. The two went to jail. Lauer annoyed his divorced wife and was run in by Officer Limecooly.

Fred Figel, the Bloomingdale grocer, died Saturday night, aged forty-three years, and will be buried to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from No. 121 Wells street. His wife is seriously ill with dropsy and cannot live long.

The regular cottage meeting will be held on Tuesday evening at 7:30 standard time at the residence of Mrs.
Becker, corner of Harrison and Third streets, Bloomingdale. Mr. R. C. Ross conducts the service. We hope all who can will be present.

Mr. Oliver Herbert was engineer of the train that killed four people at Plymouth last night. He was also on the engine that killed the boy at Warsaw Friday night. Several Fort Wayne people were on the train last evening and are personally noted elsewhere.

John Krock, of the Eighth ward, had a narrow escape from having a runaway while returning home from work Saturday evening. A loose board on his wagon slid forward and hit the horse on the heels, causing him to start off at a lively gait, but John checked him before any damage was done.

At a meeting of the American Bible society in the First Presbyterian church, yesterday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
Dr. W. T. Ferguson, president; W. E.
Griffith, vice-president; L. R. Hartman, treasurer, and W. R. Douglas, secretary. The meeting was largely attended and a number of interesting addresses made by our city clergymen. Rev. Mr.
Gillette, of Cleveland, was present and gave an interesting talk on Bible work.

The Sunday afternoon service held at the Railroad Y. M. C. A. was entertaining and instructive. Rev. Mr. McFarland had charge and opened by reading a part of the 16th Psalm, following with an address on "Personal Work," in which he impressed upon his hearers the importance of individual work among their fellows. He then left the meeting open for prayer and testimony, when several responded. The blessing of God was invoked upon the Y. M. C. A. convention in session at Milwaukee where our city is represented by Messrs. Philley and Hays. Gospel Hymns are used and heartily sung by all the boys.

"AT THE RIVER."

Rev. J. B. Stewart Administers Public Baptism in the St. Joe.

Rev. J. B. Stewart, pastor of the United Brethren church, baptized seven converts in the St. Joe river, at the bend below Rudisill's mill, yesterday afternoon. A crowd assembled on the bank and it was some time before the minister succeeded in banishing impious fishermen and silencing unbelievers in the vicinity. The congregation sang "Yes, We Shall Gather at the River" and other hymns while Rev. Mr. Stewart, in his shirt sleeves, led the converts into deep water and immersed them thoroughly while pronouncing the baptismal vows.
The men stood the immersion with un-concern, but the ladies experienced much fear, and one young woman, whose wet garments clung closely to her chilled form, fainted in the minister's arms. Another young woman manifested her faith by avowing her praises to God just as her face was lifted from the water. The ceremony was frequently interrupted by boys and girls, who had to be reprimanded by their elders.

M. B. CURTIS.

The Actor Got Away From His Chicago Creditors.

THE SENTINEL noted the capers, at Chicago, of M. B. Curtis, the actor, who played "Samuel of Posen" at the Temple recently. The New York Clipper says: "The escapade of M. B. Curtis from the sheriff at Chicago contains some very humorous incidents not given to the public. Curtis looked himself in the dressing room with the courage of Bob Acres, and the villains still pursued him. He escaped through a trap, and out through the boxes into the audience to his hotel. There he 'made up' with a wig and beard, donned a long ulster and assumed the walk of a cripple. The sheriffs were all on the lookout, but he succeeded in getting himself looked into the toilet room till the train got into Indiana and then the brakeman let him out, a badly scared young man. S.
Morris played the part of Plasterik at the matinee, owing to Mr. C.'s absence.

The Railroads and Factories Resume Work and Business Beginning to Boom in all Quarters.

Telegraphic Reports of the Late Strike From Chicago, Cincinnati and Other Points.

CHICAGO.

THE STRIKE AND LOCKOUT.

CHICAGO, May 10.—The excitement over the labor troubles this morning is principally confined to the lumber district. In that section great crowds assembled early to see if any old hands would return to work. At P. Woehler & Co.'s eighty men went to work at 8 hours with nine hours pay. All saw, door and blind factories in the district started up.

About 1,500 men went to work. They get nine hours pay for eight hours work. A committee of striking freight handlers of the Chicago and Northwestern asked to be permitted to return to work on the old basis. The company replied the men had been given full notice to return to work, but had failed to do so. Other men had been hired and no places are vacant.

Nearly all the striking employees of the Rothchild's Sons furniture factory returned to work Saturday, but yesterday notified the firm that they would not again return to work until the socialist agitator of their union, Stahlknecht, was released from arrest. David Rothchild gives notice that all his men are discharged and he will not hear any more proposals for compromise.

THE FREIGHT HANDLERS.

All the railways in the city resumed operations this morning and are accepting and caring for all freight offered without limit. The situation, however, affecting the freight handlers is still unsettled, and has developed an unexpected phase. The Baltimore and Ohio has conceded the eight hour working day with nine hours pay.

At the Chicago and Eastern Illinois freight house five men only of the strikers were taken back. Twelve were paid off and discharged. The latter were told they would not be taken back under any circumstances.

FOUR MORE DEATHS.

Yesterday it was quiet throughout the entire city. No processions occurred, and the police were not even called upon to disperse any large assemblages. Officer Timothy Flavin died at the city hospital last night, and Officer Michael Sheehan died at his home yesterday afternoon. This makes five police officers dead as a result of Tuesday evening's outrage, and others liable to die at any moment. Kruger, the socialist who was shot by Officer Madden, Wednesday night, died yesterday morning, and the death of Frank Lammie occurred at 2307 Wentworth avenue during the afternoon. He was a recognized member of the communist, and was wounded in Tuesday night's riot.

A STRIKER FIELD.

C. C. Anderson, a discharged employe of the Western Indiana railroad, was held to the criminal court in $500 bail for pulling coupling pins from freight cars.

CINCINNATI.

A BETTER FEELING THERE.

CINCINNATI, May 10.—The situation is decidedly more hopeful to-day. Under the shadow of a strong military force and assured by the mayor's proclamation, that all who desired to go to work should have ample protection, much of the wild fear that has hitherto led many doubtful workmen to go with their fellowmen is gone. Street repairing has been resumed. A large number of workers in the furniture factories are again at work.

Where new men have been hired they are not molested and on every hand the indications are that the strike is growing less and less formidable. The furniture manufacturers have settled the question of an advance in wages. They will not advance. The carriage manufacturers to their men and work is being resumed to-day. Under the new arrangements nobody anticipates any collision or violence and the hope is that within a few days all the trouble will be amicably settled.

DETROIT.

DETROIT, Mich., May 10.—This morning crowds of strikers gathered about the Michigan car shops when some workmen attempted to go to work. The crowd drove them away with bricks. Under protection of the police twenty-five men resumed work. The Ontario force at Murphy's chair factory resumed this morning. A score of extra police have been sworn in.

PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 10.—About six hundred garment cutters and trim-

mers at wholesale establishments struck for eight hours with ten hours pay. It will throw out of work several thousand men, women and girls. The firms in the clothing exchange, thirty-four in number, will resist the demands.

PITTSBURG.

PITTSBURG, May 10.—One thousand colliers employed in the pits along the Youghaheny river and also at the mines at Scott Haven, resumed work this morning at the advance in wages demanded.

WASHINGTON.

Gossip From the Nation's Capital.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Save the introduction of unimportant memorials and bills nothing was done in congress to-day.

William H. Souder, private secretary to General Black, commissioner of pensions, has been kept at home during the past two weeks in order to attend upon a child which has been seriously ill with diphtheria. Mr. Souder was reared near Muncie, and was at one time editor of the Fort Wayne Sentinel.

The Washington Herald says: "Ex-Senator McDonald went to New York on Friday, to attend a dinner party, but his wife remained here to await his return. They will not leave the city, probably, before the close of the week." The Capital says: Ex-Senator and Mrs. McDonald, who have been spending some weeks at the Higge House, will leave to-morrow, for their home in Indianapolis. Senator and Mrs. McDonald will be at home by the middle of the week.

Frank Beane, son of a democratic editor at Elkhart, nominated to be register of a land office in Idaho, has been rejected, because the man removed was a wounded union soldier. Beane will get another place.

Third Auditor Williams claims, in his report, that in the year ending April 30, 1886, there was a saving of clerk hire in his bureau of $14,446, and he estimates the reduction this year at $28,000.

Delegate Voorhees, of Washington territory, was asked this morning about the report that his sister, Miss Rose, was being pursued from place to place and annoyed with unwelcome attentions by a New York gentleman named Dodge. "It is a newspaper gossip, I think," he said; "I know Mr. Dodge well, and he is not the man to make a fool of himself and bring a young girl into two public prints. Possibly he and my sister may have accidentally met in Chattanooga after both had left Florida, but I am sure there was no following or annoyance of any kind. I hope that talk about this matter will stop right here. If it should ever go so far as the publication in newspapers of pictures of the parties, there may be a curious test case in the courts soon."

The Greek Ministers Resign.

ATHENS, May 10.—The Greek ministers persisted in resigning despite King George's refusal on Sunday to accept their resignation. The official journal approves the ministerial action and says it believes it is for the best interests of Greece. The king met the cabinet at noon to-day and accepted their resignations. The king immediately sent for M. Rikettes and commissioned him to form a new ministry.

The Ohio Senate.

COLUMBUS, O., May 10.—In the Ohio senate this morning Van Cleef, a democrat, offered a motion for the correction of the journal referring to the proceedings of Saturday, seating four republican members. The motion was ruled out of order, and the protest offered by Van Cleef against the proceeding on Saturday were taken under advisement by the president.

Fire Recurred.

CINCINNATI, May 10.—The town of Laurel, Ind., was again visited by a fire yesterday, having been nearly destroyed a short time ago. This time the loss is about $13,000. Insurance, $7,000. J. Geyer, dry goods, is the principal loser. The fire started from dynamite exploded in Geyer's building by unknown parties.

Mr. Moody Responsible.

CHICAGO, May 10.—The impression that the Moody revival meetings were closed by order of the mayor is wrong. The meetings were suspended by Mr. Moody himself, and the mayor or police had no agency in the matter whatever.

A Tornado.

CONNEYSVILLE, Ind., May 10.—A tornado passed through Wayne county, thirteen miles north of this place, last night, destroying everything in its track. One woman and two men, names unknown, are reported killed.

Home Rule.

LONDON, May 10.—Gladstone was received with cheers and moved a second reading of his home rule bill.

THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Wheat, opened to stronger and later weakened. No. 2 red, May, 80 1/2 @ 90. Corn, shade higher, less active, 35 @ 38. Oats, quiet steady at 40 @ 44.

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Wheat, weak, lower, 75 1/2. Corn, easy, 34. Oats, weak, 23.

Rev. I. N. Poreh, of Bloomington, a minister of the Christian church, died Saturday.

SECRET

Circular to the Knights of Labor.

Master Workman Powderly Lays Down the Law to the Workmen of the Nation.

His Words Ring With Good Sense and Should be Obeyed by All Assemblies.

TO KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Mr. Powderly's Secret Circular Finds its Way to the Public.

CHICAGO, May 10.—The following secret letter has been received by the Knights of Labor, of this city, and will be read in the assemblies during the week. It is very important to Knights of Labor:

"Noble Order of the Knights of Labor, PHILADELPHIA, May 1, 1886. To the Order, everywhere, greeting."

"The response to the secret circular issued on March 13 has been so generous and the endorsement of the sentiment contained therein has been so unanimous that I feel encouraged and strengthened in the work. Nearly four thousand assemblies have pledged themselves to act on the advice contained in the circular of the 13th ult. I feel that it only requires the coming to the front of the real men of our order to set us right before the world. We have been losing ground, so far as public opinion is concerned, for some time. One of the causes is that we have allowed things to be done under the name of the Knights of Labor for which the organization was in no wise responsible. I ask of our members to keep a jealous eye upon the going of the labor men who never labor, and when they charge anything to your order in your locality, set the seal of your condemnation upon them at once by denying it. If a paper criticizes the Knights of Labor or its officers, do not boycott it, and if you have entered on such boycotts stop them. We must bear in mind that our general master workman is only a man, and is not above criticism. We demand for ourselves the right of free speech. We must tolerate fair, open criticism, and if a reply is necessary, make it in a gentlemanly, dignified manner. If we are criticized or abused by a blackguard sheet, treat it as you would the blackguard himself—in silence. That our aims and objects are good is no reason why our members should be regarded as beings of superior build or material. We are no more the salt of the earth than the millions of unknown toilers who do the work of the world. In our dealings with laborers and capitalists we must deal justly and fairly by them. If we would have equity done to us, we must, in turn do equity to others. That is the aim of the Knights of Labor, and must not be lost sight of in the future."

"Let me direct your attention to a few little abuses; I find that wherever a strike occurs appeals for aid are scattered broadcast among the assemblies. Do not pay one cent for such purposes in future, unless the appeal comes from your own district assembly or the general assembly. If boycott notices are sent you, burn them. I have in my possession over 400 boycott notices which were sent to assemblies with a request that they be acted on. Let me mention some of them. A certain paper is influential in one or the other political parties. Members of the opposing party conceive the idea of getting rid of the paper, and they invoke the aid of the Knight of Labor, first making the pretension to have the paper in question say something complimentary of the Knights of Labor. In fact, our order has been used as a tail for a hundred different kites, and in the future it must soar aloft from all of them. I ask of the secretary of each assembly to either burn or table all appeals for help, or boycott notices, and waste no more time in reading or considering them. Some assemblies sent out documents in envelopes addressed to 'Secretary of Assembly No. —'. In many places the secretaries have been discharged because of this practice. No member has the right to address another in that way, and if it is ever practised again the offenders will be punished."

"In future the general executive board must not be interfered with in the performance of its duty. If you have confidence in them, show it and obey them; if not, ask for their resignations. While the board was endeavoring to settle the southwest trouble, assemblies in some places, with the best of intentions, no doubt, were passing and publishing resolutions condemning Jay Gould. These things did no good; on the contrary, they were injurious. In the settlement of troubles it becomes the duty of the executive board to meet everybody and go everywhere. While they are doing this they must not be hampered by the action of those who do not know what their task is. Keep quiet; let your officers do their best, and if you cannot find a way to aid them, do not retard their progress. Resolutions do not prevent land stealing, stock-watering, or gambling in the necessities of life. If I had my mind made up to rob a bank at midnight, a string of resolutions as long as the moral law would not influence me a particle; but if some interested party would take the trouble to study up the question, and would inform himself as to my right to rob the bank, and would stand guard at the door of the vault, I would not rob it at midnight if he did his duty. What we want from every member is not gush or windy resolutions about our rights. We know we have rights without passing resolutions. Men who think, study and act are required."

"The general assembly will meet in special session on the 25th of May in the city of Cleveland. From the receipt of this letter you must not address any communications to me, nor need you expect an answer if you do. I have thousands of letters piled up around me now, and they never can be read, much less answered by one man. During and since my illness the mail delivered at my house has exceeded 400 letters a day. They come from everybody and everywhere. I asked through the journals that no one send letters to me. I am told by some to get help. If I had fifty assistants it would do no good, for it takes my whole time to read half of the letters, and in the middle of my work I am waited on by some committee, who generally misrepresent me after they leave. For every member of the committee will tell a different story. From now until the general assembly meets I will receive no communications, answer no letters, and will not be interfered with. Let me repeat, I will receive no committee, answer no letters, nor will I go anywhere at the request of members of assemblies. This is imperative. I must have a chance to do something of benefit for the order, and I can not do it if I am to sit for eighteen hours a day reading letters which have been answered and re-answered in the journal and constitution. What I will say in the general assembly will be said to the entire order, and you must give me time to prepare it."

"We have had some trouble from drinking members and from men who talk about buying guns and dynamite. If the men who possess money enough to buy guns and dynamite would invest it in the purchase of some well selected works on labor, they would put the money to good use. They will never need the gun or dynamite in this country. It is my opinion that the man who does not study the politics of the nation and wants of our people would make but little use of a rifle. The man who cannot vote intelligently, and who will not watch the man he votes for, after he is elected, cannot be depended upon to use either gun or dynamite. If the head, the brain, of man cannot work out the problem now confronting us, his hand alone will never solve it. If I kill my enemy I silence him, it is true, but I do not convince him. I would make a convert rather than a corpse of my enemy. Men who own capital are not our enemies. If that theory held good the workman of to-day would be the enemy of his fellow toiler to-morrow; for, after all, it is how to acquire capital and how to use it properly that we are endeavoring to learn. No. The man of capital is not necessarily the enemy of the laboring man; on the contrary, they must be brought closer together. I am well aware that some extremists will say that I am advocating a weak plan, and will say that bloodshed and the destruction of property alone will solve the problem."

"To our drinking members I extend the hand of kindness. I hate the uses to which rum has been put, but it is my duty to reach down and lift up the man who has fallen a victim to the use of liquor. If there is such a man within the sound of the secretary's voice when this is read, I ask him to stand erect on the floor of his assembly, raise his hand to heaven and repeat with me these words: 'I am a Knight of Labor. I believe every man should be free from the curse of slavery, whether the slavery appears in the shape of monopoly, usury, or intemperance. The firmest link in the chain of oppression is the one I forge when I drown mankind and reason in drink. No man can rob me of the brain; God gave me a brain, and I am a party to the theft. If one moment's forgetfulness while drunk brings defeat to the least of labor's plans, a life time attention to duty alone can repair the loss. I promise never again to put myself in such a position."

"We have, through some unfortunate misunderstanding, incurred the enmity of several trades unions. While I can find no excuse for the unmanly attack made upon us by some of these people, at a time when we stood face to face with a most perplexing question, neither can I see any good reason for any cause for a quarrel. We must have no clashing between the men of labor's army. If I am the cause of the trouble, I stand ready at a moment's notice to make way for one of my rivals whom the general assembly may select. Break the power of the Knights of Labor and you hand labor bound hand and foot over to its enemies. Years ago I extended an invitation to men of all trades to become a part and parcel to the Knights of Labor. To-day I stand ready to make every honorable concession, to do everything in honor to bring about a better feeling between trades unions and the Knights of Labor. At a special session of the general assembly the entire trouble can and must be settled. If mistakes have been made, they must be rectified; if wrongs have been inflicted, they must be righted, but there is one thing that will not be done while I stand at the head of this organization—it will not be used to further the schemes of individuals, cliques or parties, and it will be subordinate to no other organization on earth. [Signed] T. V. POWDERLY, General Master Workman.

Wonders of the Sea.

Written for THE SENTINEL.

The sea occupies three-fifths of the surface of the earth. At the depth of about 3,500 feet, waves are not felt. The temperature is the same, varying only a trifle from the ice of the pole to the burning sun of the equator. A mile down, the water has a pressure of over a ton to the square inch. If a box six feet deep was filled with sea water and allowed to co-operate under the sun, there would be two inches of salt left on the bottom. Taking the average depth of the ocean to be three miles, there would be a layer of pure salt 230 feet thick on the bed of the Atlantic. The water is colder at the bottom than at the surface. In the many bays on the coasts of Norway, the water often freezes on the bottom before it does above. Waves are deceptive. To look at them in a storm, one would think the water traveled. The water stays in the same place, but the motion goes on. Sometimes in storms these waves are forty feet high, and travel fifty miles an hour—more than twice as fast as the swiftest steamer. The distance from valley to valley is generally fifteen times the height, hence a wave five feet high will extend over seventy-five feet of water. The force of these dashes on Bell Rock is said to be seven-eighths of a ton for each square yard. Evaporation is a wonderful power in drawing the water from the sea. Every year a layer of the sea fourteen feet thick is taken up into the clouds. The winds bear them into land, and the water comes down in rain upon the fields to flow back at last through rivers. The depth of the sea presents an interesting problem. If the Atlantic ocean were lowered 6,664 feet, the distance from shore to shore would be half as great, or 1,500 miles. If lowered a little more than three miles, say 19,680 feet, there would be a road of dry land from New Foundland to Ireland. This is the plan on which the great Atlantic cables were laid. The Mediterranean sea is comparatively shallow. A drying up of 660 feet would leave three different seas and the continent of Africa would be joined to that of Europe at Italy. The British channel is more like a pond, which accounts for its choppy waves. It has been found difficult to get correct soundings of the Atlantic ocean. A midshipman of the navy overcame the difficulty, and shot weighing thirty pounds carried down the line. A hole is bored through the sinker, through which a rod of iron is passed, moving easily back and forth. In the end of the bar a cup is dug out and the inside coated with lard. The bar is made fast to the line and a sling holds the shot on. When the bar, which extends below the ball, touches the earth, the sling unhooks and the whole slides off. The lard in the end of the bar holds some of the sand, or whatever may be on the bottom, and a drop shuls over the cup to keep the water from washing the sand out. When the ground is reached a shock is felt as if an electric current had passed through the line.

Death of John Larwill, Jr.

Saturday evening last John Larwill, Jr., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Larwill, aged fourteen years and five months, died at the home of his parents. His funeral will occur to-morrow, Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock. Services at the residence, No. 93 East Berry street, by Rev. D. W. Moffitt. Master Larwill was a member of the First Presbyterian Sunday school. He was a very bright boy and gave promise of ripening into a noble man, but death seeks a shining mark, and has one in the person of this most estimable young man, whose death is deeply mourned. He was a nephew of Messrs. W. G. P. B. and Henry Cole-rick.

There was a freight wreck on the Nickel Plate road at South Whitley yesterday. Twelve cars were piled on the engine and George Mahon of Fort Wayne was hurt.

CRUSHED BY A TRAIN.

A Family of Four Persons Killed at Inwood.

PITTSBURG, Ind., May 10.—As the fast express which left Chicago at 3:15 p. m. via the Fort Wayne road, yesterday afternoon, was passing the little station of Inwood, six miles east of Plymouth, at 6 o'clock last evening, a horrible accident occurred and four lives were lost thereby. John Wymer, a young farmer, living a mile and a half east of Inwood, started from his home in the morning, accompanied by his wife and two pretty little daughters, one aged five years and the other a babe, and drove out to visit his father-in-law. After spending the day they started back and reached Inwood station just as the express was due. As his wagon was passing over the track it was struck by the engine and both homes were killed instantly, as was also Wymer and the eldest child. His wife and the other child escaped instant death but died thirty minutes later. The bodies of Wymer and the eldest child are mangled so as to make them almost unrecognizable, and they present a sickening appearance. The girl's head was completely severed from the body and lay ten or fifteen feet away, while Wymer was simply a shapeless mass of flesh.

An eye-witness said to an Associated Press reporter: "It was an awful accident, but no one is to blame except Wymer himself. Just before they came down this far Wymer had a friend in the wagon with him. The man strongly urged him not to attempt to cross the track; but Wymer paid no heed to him. Then the friend got out of the wagon and left Wymer to take the chance if he wanted. Wymer was foolish, but it is too late now to talk about that."

After the train had moved on the dead and dying were left on the floor of the station there, to await the arrival of medical aid, although there was no hope that either mother or child would live until it could reach them. The coroner at Plymouth was also notified and is holding an inquest. Much sorrow was expressed among the residents at Inwood and the passengers, at the unfortunate event by which an entire family was wiped out of existence through the recklessness of its head member.

While the same fast express No. 8 east on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad was approaching Warsaw last Friday evening, a boy named James Brown, aged eleven years, attempted to run across the track ahead of the engine, but was run over and instantly killed. The train stopped and took the remains to the station, where they were turned over to the coroner.

SOME one not long since invented a papier-mache coffin. Among the advantages claimed for it were its close resemblance to wood, its lightness, water-proof quality, and incombustibility, though why this latter quality should recommend the new casket is not apparent. The paper casket has been patented, but has not been put upon the market. Iron and bronze caskets have been for some time in favor, and recently marble caskets have come in. They are practically indestructible, being made of a composition of marble dust and Portland cement, and molded and baked like pottery. A certain peculiar post-mortem vanity has found gratification in transparent glass coffins, but hard wood is still more used than any other material, and for all practical purposes it is, doubtless, as satisfactory as anything else. On the score of healthfulness, indeed, the less durable the casket the better for the surviving population of the earth.

The new base-ball catcher's glove is out for the season, and is widely different from that of 1885, says the Boston Herald. The palm is not so heavily padded, and the ends of the fingers are protected by sole leather helmets. When a hot ball comes against the end of the catcher's hand, when encased in one of those new-style assassination protectors, it simply unhinges the arm at the shoulder, where it can be readily replaced by another one, without delaying the game more than for a moment. The old-style glove did not take this kind of care of the wearer's fingers. Generally they were driven in through his ribs, whence they were with difficulty coiled up or removed with a pipe wrench, in a damaged condition, or else they were completely worn out by the attrition and impact of the ball so that they had to be filed completely off. The advantage of the new glove will be obvious to all men who have looked upon the catcher when he moveth himself aright, after stopping a solid shot with the first joint of his longest finger.

Some years ago a young girl pianist was about to give her first concert in one of the foreign capitals. She had never even seen the great Hungarian composer, but she was tempted to insert in the programme she sent out the alluring notice "pupil of Liszt," deeming herself perfectly safe from detection, as the musician was far away. Just before the day of the concert she took up a newspaper, and to her horror, among the names of the arrivals at a certain hotel in the city she read that of the "Abbe Liszt." What was she to do? To publicly confess her fraud at the outset of her musical career would be to crush it at once. A straightforward plan suggested itself. Acting upon it, she went to the hotel, asked to see the Abbe, and threw herself on his mercy. Liszt asked her a few questions and then requested her to play one of the pieces she intended to perform at the concert. While she did so he stood over her, suggesting a pause here or correcting a forte there. At the conclusion of the piece Liszt said, "Now, mademoiselle, you can truthfully say that you are a pupil of Liszt, for you have had your first lesson. You may also put on your programme that you will be assisted by your master, who will play two pieces at your concert." Liszt kept his promise, and by his disinterested kindness saved the girl's reputation.

A BILL to provide for a State Board of Arbitration has passed the Massachusetts House of Representatives. It authorizes the Governor to appoint three competent persons to serve on such board, one representing employers, one to be selected from some labor organization, and those two to select a third, the persons thus appointed to hold office for one year. Whenever any controversy arises between an employer and his employees, upon application the board will visit the locality of the dispute, hear witnesses, advise the parties what to do, and make a written decree. The application must state the grievances and also a promise to continue on in business or at work until the decree is made, and the decision will be binding for six months, or until either party has given the other sixty days' notice it will not be bound by it. The bill further allows the parties to any controversy to select an Arbitration Board of their own, which will have all the powers of the State Board and the right to confer and advise with it.

A Sad Case of Poisoning is that of any man or woman afflicted with disease or derangement of the liver, resulting in poisonous accumulations in the blood, scrofulous affections, skin diseases, and diseases of the kidneys, lungs or heart. These troubles can be cured only by going to the primary cause, and putting the liver in a healthy condition. To accomplish this result speedily and effectually, nothing has proved itself so efficacious as Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," which has never failed to do the work claimed for it, and never will.

Great Reduction in Prices for 1886.

Goods are so low now that it can hardly be expected that there will be any further decline, so that those laying in full supplies will not likely be disappointed.

Coffee Down 2c, Tea Down 10c, Sugars Down 1-2c, Syrups Down 10c, Turkish Prunes Down 1c.

Best Rio Coffee down to 10c a pound; good Rio coffee down to 8c a pound; best Roasted Rio down to 12 1/2c a pound; Government Java, 20c; Roasted Java 20c.

TEAS Reduced in Proportion.

It is no more a luxury to buy Teas. When they were $1 and $2 per pound then of course the consumption of them was small, but now the price is so low that a good Tea can be bought at 25c per pound then they come within the reach of all. We are enabled to sell so low simply in consequence of our immense trade. At times we sell two and three chests daily, and buying direct of the Importers and selling direct to the consumer, enables us to save our customers the profits of the jobber, speculator and wholesale merchant which is at least 10 to 20 per cent. Young Hyson, good, 20c; choice, 20c; best, 20c; Gunpowder, good, 20c; choice, 40c; best, 50c; Oolong or Black Tea, good, 20c; choice, 20c; best, 50c; Japan Tea, uncolored, 50c; choice, 40c; best, 50c; English Breakfast, good, 20c; best, 30c per pound.
